European Elections on 26 May 2019

The 9th direct elections to the European Parliament are being held in the EU on 23–26 May 2019. In Germany, these elections will take place on Sunday, 26 May 2019.

Union citizens from other EU Member States who live in Germany may vote in either their home Member State or in Germany as their Member State of residence, but everyone may only vote once.

To vote in Germany, you must be registered in your place of residence in Germany. Once registered, you will automatically be notified of future European elections.

To register, you must apply at the town or city hall of your place of residence by Sunday, 5 May 2019 at the latest.

You may also register by mail to the municipality of your place of residence.

(Please note the official opening hours and time needed for mail delivery!).

If you voted in Germany European elections since 1999 and have not moved abroad and later returned to Germany, you are already on the electoral register and do not need to register again.
